CAMPUS COMMUNITY CENTERS

The Women's Center, The Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Resource Center, and the Cross-Cultural Center are collectively known as the Campus Community Centers. We are grounded in a shared belief that ending one oppression requires ending all oppressions. Together we facilitate interactive learning, promote self-awareness, foster leadership development, encourage dialogue, and challenge traditional notions of diversity. The Campus Community Centers work with undergraduate and graduate students, staff, faculty, alumni, and the San Diego Community. Through these partnerships, we build and sustain a socially just campus climate. (March 21, 2008)

for '09-'10 Academic Year

THE CROSS-CULTURAL CENTER

Our vision is to empower UCSD to recognize, challenge, and take proactive approaches to diversity for the campus and the San Diego community. We strive for meaningful dialogues and context across all cultures, particularly those of underrepresented or underprivileged backgrounds. We offer supportive and educational services through art, programs, workshops, and outreach, and we welcome creative venues for enhancing social consciousness and equity.

THE LESBIAN GAY BISexual TRANSGENDER RESOURCE CENTER

The LGBT Resource Center is a diverse, open and public space for all members of the university community to explore issues relating to sexual and gender identities, practices and politics. We develop student leadership, build workplace equity, promote academic research, and provide resources. We challenge existing definitions of variant genders and sexualities by engaging in community building on- and off-campus. We also sustain and develop visibility, sense of community, and knowledge of diverse queer people.
